HOLY GHOST FESTIVAL

We congratulate all those of Portuguese descent as they celebrate their Holy Ghost Festival this weekend. Congratulations to this year's Big Queen, Emily Reed and her side maids Angel Sousa and Ashley Rosa. Little Queen is Sianna Shannon and her side maids are Lillian Boynton and Natalie Boynton. The "Traditional Holy Ghost Festival" originated in Portugal in the 13th century. The country had suffered three years of drought and famine. The sun was so hot, it set the dry grass on fire. Portuguese Queen Isabella came out of her castle to walk among her people. To soothe the children, she took the crown from her head and placed it on the little children. As the people left the church, they saw white doves fly into the trees and extinguish the flames. Then, on the horizon, they saw three ships loaded with food. A great feast took place and late that night rain began.

MEMORIAL DAY

A time to remember those who have given their lives for our country. Please take a moment to pray for them and their families. Also, please remember those who currently serve to keep us safe.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the celebration of my installation as Pastor. It was a great pleasure to see so many people there. I appreciate the help of all the groups who contributed to the Mass and reception afterwards, especially the Catholic Daughters, the Deacons and Deacon candidates, Garcia's Florist, Grupo Carismatico, the Knights of Columbus, Women's Society, lectors, musicians and all the wonderful cooks! I am very happy to be here in Fortuna and look forward to getting to know each of you. May God bless you all abundantly for your hospitality and generosity.
