Matthew 28:7

Prayer of the Faithful

Rejoicing in the good news of the Resurrection, let us now offer to God our prayers for all those in need.

For the whole Church, as we share our Easter joy through our witness to God's love in everything that we do, especially through consideration of the needs of our neighbors at this difficult time, we pray to the Lord.

For the gifts of new life, hope, peace, and health in every nation of the world, we pray to the Lord.

For those still anticipating their baptism and confirmation, especially those of our parish, N., N., and N., that they be guided by the Spirit while they wait to begin living out their baptismal promises, we pray to the Lord.

For all children, signs of hope in our future and signs of God's love in our world now, for their health and wellbeing, we pray to the Lord.

For the eternal glory of our beloved dead, especially N., N., and N., we pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord. O God of abundant life, you have given us cause for great joy on this Easter day, even in the midst of our trials. Grant us the grace to share your good news with all our brothers and sisters, and graciously hear all these our prayers through Christ our risen Lord.

FIVE SIMPLE WAYS TO CELEBRATE HOLY WEEK AT HOME

Create a simple prayer space in your home and gather there to pray during the week.

Palm Sunday: At your regular Mass time, read the first Palm Sunday Gospel (Mt 21:1–11) and meditate on or discuss what Jesus might be thinking as he enters Jerusalem for the last time.

Holy Thursday: Bake bread for sharing at dinner; make a ritual of stripping the dinner table of all cloths and decorations after dinner.

Good Friday: Pray the Stations of the Cross at 3 p.m.

Holy Saturday: In the morning, read Psalm 64 and break your Good Friday fast solemnly with a simple meal.

Easter Sunday: Dress up the dinner table again. Include candles and crosses, so that the candy baskets aren't the only festive items present. Sing Alleluia and read the Easter Gospel (Matthew 28:1-10) with solemnity and joy.

CINCO MANERAS SENCILLAS PARA CELEBRAR LA SEMANA SANTA EN CASA

Designe un espacio sencillo en su casa y reúnanse ahí para rezar durante la semana.

Domingo de Ramos: A la hora que acostumbra a asistir a Misa, lea el siguiente Evangelio: Mateo 21:1–11), mediten y compartan lo que Jesús pudo pensar cuando entró a Jerusalén por última vez.

Jueves Santo: Hornee una hogaza de pan para compartir durante la cena, haga un ritual para quitar de la mesa, utensilios, decoraciones y el mantel de la mesa después de la cena.

Viernes Santo: A las 3:00 P.M. recen el Viacrucis.

Sábado Santo: En la mañana, lean el salmo 34 y terminen el ayuno de Viernes Santo solemnemente con una comida sencilla.

Domingo de Resurrección: Vuelva a vestir la mesa. Incluya veladoras y cruces, para que no solamente sean las canastitas de dulces los únicos objetos festivos presentes. Canten Aleluya y lean solemnemente y alegres el siguiente Evangelio para la Pascua de este año (Mateo 28:1–10) Busquen en Internet otras sugerencias para celebrar la Semana Santa en casa, para profundizar y enriquecer su experiencia en este momento de aislamiento social.

Christians, to the Paschal Victim

Offer your thankful praises! Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless, Reconciles sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring. "The tomb of Christ, who is living,

The glory of Jesus' resurrection; bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting.

Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you." Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.
