JULY 28, 2024 MARRIAGE: THE MULTIPLICATION OF LOVE

For Catholics, the key to living the Sacrament of Marriage is trusting in the blessing that comes from Jesus. Whenever we feel like our gifts are too meager, Jesus simply says, "Show me what you have."

Through this beautiful sacrament, as husband and wife we place our lives, our bodies, our everything into the hands of the Lord. God takes our gifts, blesses them like the loaves and fish, and multiplies the love of our marriage—through hospitality, through any children God may give, and through our living witness to God's self-sacrificing love—to radiate love into the world.

28 DE JULIO DE 2024 EL MATRIMONIO: LA MULTIPLICACIÓN DEL AMOR

Para los católicos, la clave para vivir el Sacramento del Matrimonio es confiar en la bendición que viene de Jesús. Cada vez que sentimos que nuestros dones son demasiado escasos, Jesús simplemente dice: "Muéstrame lo que tienes".

A través de este hermoso sacramento, como esposo y esposa ponemos nuestras vidas, nuestros cuerpos, nuestro todo en las manos del Señor. Dios toma nuestros dones, los bendice como los panes y los peces, y multiplica el amor de nuestro matrimonio, a través de la hospitalidad, a través de los hijos que Dios pueda dar, y a través de nuestro testimonio vivo del amor sacrificado de Dios: radiar amor al mundo.

Sts. Anne and Joachim

July 26 2024

On July 26 the Roman Catholic Church commemorates the parents of the Virgin Mary, Saints Joachim and Anne. The couple's faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ.

The New Testament contains no specific information about the lives of the Virgin Mary's parents, but other documents outside of the Biblical canon do provide some details. Although these writings are not considered authoritative in the same manner as the Bible, they outline some of the Church's traditional beliefs about Joachim, Anne and their daughter.

The "Protoevangelium of James," which was probably put into its final written form in the early second century, describes Mary's father Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness. "He called to mind Abraham," the early Christian writing says, "that in the last day God gave him a son Isaac."

Joachim and Anne began to devote themselves to rigorous prayer and fasting, in isolation from one another and from society. They regarded their inability to conceive a child as a surpassing misfortune, and a sign of shame among the tribes of Israel.

As it turned out, however, the couple were to be blessed even more abundantly than Abraham and Sarah. An angel revealed this to Anne when he appeared to her and prophesied that all generations would honor their future child: "The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth; and your seed shall be spoken of in all the world."

After Mary's birth, according to the Protoevangelium of James, Anne "made a sanctuary" in the infant girl's room, and "allowed nothing common or unclean" on account of the special holiness of the child. The same writing records that when she was one year old, her father "made a great feast, and invited the priests, and the scribes, and the elders, and all the people of Israel."

"And Joachim brought the child to the priests," the account continues, "and they blessed her, saying: 'O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her an everlasting name to be named in all generations' ... And he brought her to the chief priests; and they blessed her, saying: 'O God most high, look upon this child, and bless her with the utmost blessing, which shall be forever.'"

The protoevangelium goes on to describe how Mary's parents, along with the temple priests, subsequently decided that she would be offered to God as a consecrated Virgin for the rest of her life, and enter a chaste marriage with the carpenter Joseph.

St. Joachim and St. Anne have been a part of the Church's liturgical calendar for many centuries. Devotion to their memory is particularly strong in the Eastern Catholic churches, where their intercession is invoked by the priest at the end of each Divine Liturgy. The Eastern churches, however, celebrate Sts. Joachim and Anne on a different date, Sept. 9.

El protoevangelio de Santiago cuenta que los vecinos de Joaquín se burlaban de él porque no tenía hijos. Entonces, el santo se retiró cuarenta días al desierto a orar y ayunar, en tanto que Ana (cuyo nombre significa Gracia) "se quejaba en dos quejas y se lamentaba en dos lamentaciones". Un ángel se le apareció y le dijo: "Ana, el Señor ha escuchado tu oración: concebirás y darás a luz. Del fruto de tu vientre se hablará en todo el mundo". A su debido tiempo nació María, quien sería la Madre de Dios. Esta narración se parece mucho a la de la concepción y el nacimiento de Samuel, cuya madre se llamaba también Ana (1 Reyes, 1). Los primeros Padres de la Iglesia oriental veían en ello un paralelismo. En realidad, se puede hablar de paralelismo entre la narración de la concepción de Samuel y la de Juan Bautista, pero en el caso presente la semejanza es tal, que se trata claramente de una imitación.

Oracion

Insigne y glorioso patriarca San Joaquín y bondadosísima Santa Ana, ¡cuánto es mi gozo al considerar que fueron escogidos entre todos los santos de Dios para dar cumplimiento divino y enriquecer al mundo con la gran Madre de Dios, María Santísima! Por tan singular privilegio, han llegado a tener la mayor influencia sobre ambos, Madre e Hijo, para conseguirmos las gracias que más necesitamos.

Con gran confianza recurro a su protección poderosa y les encomiendo todas mis necesidades espirituales y materiales y las de mi familia. Especialmente la gracia particular que confío a su solicitud y vivamente deseo obtener por su intercesión.

Como ustedes fueron ejemplo perfecto de vida interior, obténgame el don de la más sincera oración. Que yo nunca ponga mi corazón en los bienes pasajeros de esta vida.

Denme vivo y constante amor a Jesús y a María. Obténgame también una devoción sincera y obediencia a la Santa Iglesia y al Papa que la gobierna para que yo viva y muera con fe, esperanza y perfecta caridad.

Que yo siempre invoque los santos Nombres de Jesús y de María, y así me salve. - Amen
